DESIGN

I strive not to imitate,
but to embody a nature that creates new forms.

A handwritten signature consisting of the letters 'f' and 'h' in a cursive, fluid style. The 'f' has a long vertical stem that curves slightly to the left at the bottom. The 'h' is connected to the 'f' and has a small dot above it.

Riccardo Gatti, since his childhood, has shown a lively and rebellious personality against conventions, which has evolved into a deep need to express himself through an art capable of transgressing and transcending norms.

During his journey at the Academy of Fine Arts in Venice, he discovered the inner richness that fuels art, thus embracing a life dedicated to research and personal growth.

This creative, vital, and continuous process manifests as an innate expression of his nature, without a precise rational purpose, but as a spontaneous flow of creativity.
